FOUR CENTS

BATTLE OF THE BALLOTS—Newsmap shows states where close contests are expected in the November senatorial elections. Shaded states are those in which the Democrats may lose a seat or two in the United States Senate; states in black are those in which Republicans are in the same danger. The G.O.P. hopes for a double kill in Idaho and Connecticut. In the former, Republican Henry Dworshak is fighting for a four-year term and in the latter Democrat William Benton hopes to fill out the remaining two years of his term. Republicans need to win seven of the Dems' doubtful states to gain a majority in the upper house.

Quaker City Band Prominent In Civic Endeavors 54 Years

THE Quaker City band is Salem's musical organization with a proud history, dating back to over half a century of playing a prominent part in the civic life of the city.

Band concerts have always been a bit of Americana, where Sunday afternoons could be enjoyed listening to march music and favorite tunes played in the open air of city parks. Quaker City band, however, was organized even before Salem had any parks, and concerts were presented downtown under the kerosene lamps at the corner of Broadway and State st.

Michigan Teacher Confesses Arson

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 12—(AP)—Thwarted in two police-described suicide attempt, a brilliant young University of Michigan Latin teacher faces arraignment in circuit court next week on an arson charge.

Robert H. Stacy, 30, called an outstanding scholar by his colleagues, admitted yesterday he set the fire that destroyed a university landmark last June 6.

Ancient Haven Hall burned down at a loss of $618,000.

The tall, slender, dreamy-eyed instructor attempted to leap down a stairwell yesterday after signing a confession in the prosecutor's office in a downtown building. Guards caught him in time to save him from falling three floors.

In the Watnetown county jail last night, Lt. Robert Winick said Stacy tied a shirt around his neck, looped it through a well ventilator and jumped off a toilet seat in the cell. Winick cut Stacy down.

Names Of Draftees Are Made Available

COLUMBUS, Oct. 12—(AP)—State Selective Service headquarters announced today cancellation of a recent order against publication of the names of draftees until after their induction.

Col. C. W. Goble, state draft chief, said the change followed receipt of a Washington bulletin that said there is "no restriction upon release or publication of lists of registrants nor upon the time such list may be made available for publication."

61 More Take Physicals

Columbiana county draft board today forwarded 61 men to Canton for pre-induction physical examinations. Another group will be sent on the 23rd of this month. An induction call for 14 men will be issued Oct. 18, and a call for 24 on the 26th, the board reported.

PYONGYANG DRIVE QUICKENS Task Force Shells Port Of Chongjin

'Big Mo' Leads Bombardment Of Coast City

Red North Koreans Center In Flames After Shelling

ABOARD THE U. S. S. MISSOURI OFF NORTH KOREA, Oct. 12—(AP)—A United Nations naval task group led by the Mighty Mo bombarded and set fire to the far northern Red Korean port of Chongjin today.

The major rail and communications center is 34 miles southeast from Red China's Manchurian border, 49 miles southwest of the Siberian border and 120 miles southwest of Vladivostok, the Soviet port and supply head for Red Korea's heavy weapons.

The U. S. cruiser Helena opened the bombardment at 12:30 p. m. (10:30 p. m. Salem time Wednesday) with 8-inch guns. The 45,000-ton Mo, flag ship of the task group, then let go with three of her 16-inchers. The Mighty Mo has six more guns of that size.

Vive-Adm. Arthur D. Struble, the task group commander, said each 16-inch shell weighs 1,900 pounds and that "we have a 400-round allowance for today" (presumably for the whole task group).

After an hour of the shelling, parts of the city of 190,000 could be seen in flames.

United States, British, Canadian and Australian ships took part in the strike.

The naval bombardment was complemented by navy warplanes, which preceded the shelling by strafing and rocketing targets in a half-hour strike.

Chongjin also was lashed by U. S. carrier-based navy planes yesterday.

Max Amerman, plotter.

Victim Harold Mast and wife.

Gerald Killinger, triggerman.

MURDER CHARGES are faced by farm owner Max Amerman, 27, and Gerald Killinger, 17, in Medina county, on their admission of the killing of Harold Mast, 23, whose war bride wife Randi, 24, was the object of Amerman's love. Young Killinger told authorities in Cleveland, where he was taken for a lie detector test, that he fired a shotgun at Mast as the victim stood silhouetted in the rear door of Amerman's farmhouse. The Masts operated the farm. Amerman had an alibi—he attended the world series in New York—but Killinger's story unfolded the plot and the man who had hugged and kissed his tenant's wife readily added his own admission, according to investigating authorities.

Elks To Rally Here Nov. 4-5 North-East District To Be Represented

The fall meeting of the Ohio North-East Elks Conference will be held at the Salem lodge No. 35 of the B. P. O. E. Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 4 and 5.

The two-day affair is expected to attract more than 600 Elks and their wives and a number of officers of the Ohio Elks Association. It is the first meeting of its kind held here since 1947.

An informal dance will start off the social feature at 9:30 p. m. Saturday, following registration earlier in the evening. Sunday's program will include a brunch for exalted rulers, secretaries and lodge officers at 11:45 a. m., a business meeting at 2:30 p. m. and a buffet dinner at 6 p. m.

Ladies will also be honored with a party at 2 in the Memorial building.

Harry Snyder, past exalted ruler of the Salem lodge, is general chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements, and Paul M. Fithian of Youngstown will officiate for the business meeting.

The district is comprised of Elks lodges in Salem, Youngstown, Canton, Massillon, Ravenna, Warren, Kent, Barberton, Akron, Conneaut, Ashtabula, Painesville, Cleveland, Euclid and Berea. It is the largest of the six districts in the state.

State officers to attend the conference are:

Nelson Stuart of Lakewood, president; Gerald C. Nau of Elyria, president-elect; Walter J. Beer of Lima, first vice president; Joseph E. Hurst of New Philadelphia, second vice president; Willard J. Schwartz of Springfield, third vice president; L. E. Strong of Canton, secretary; C. W. Wallace of Columbus, treasurer; and Edward P. Hoadley of Ashtabula, trustee.

U. S. Casualties In Korea Jump To 24,163

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12—(AP)—Official casualties in the Korean war as of last week are listed at 24,163, an increase of 3,407 in a week.

The total, announced yesterday by the Defense Department, covers those whose next of kin had been notified through Oct. 6. Of these, 3,614 were listed as dead, 16,289 wounded and 4,260 missing.

Among the reported missing are 311 who have since been found their way back to military units and 107 identified as held by the enemy.

Cars operated by Robert G. Fisher of R. D. 2, Salem, and Joseph Butalin, Jr., of Salem collided at the intersection of S. Ellsworth ave. and Aetna st. at 10:45 p. m. Wednesday as the Fisher auto was in the process of turning onto Aetna st.

The right front end of Fisher's car and the left front fender and door of Butalin's car were damaged.

Suspension Of U. S. Passports Ordered

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12—(AP)—American officials all over the world have been ordered to suspend temporarily passport visas issued to aliens planning to come to the United States.

Officials said today the State Department telegraphed the orders yesterday to embassies and consuls to permit a check of individual records because of the light new internal security law.

The law, enacted over President Truman's veto, bars the entry of aliens who have been at any time members of the Communist "or other totalitarian" parties.

Its enforcement has resulted in the detention of several hundred aliens who already had been granted visas—entry permits—when the law went into effect.

More than 200 were being held yesterday at Ellis Island, N. Y. Germany and Italy have protested against the detention of their nationals.

$100,000 Suit Filed By Trucker's Widow

LISBON, Oct. 12—A fatal accident at the Lisbon village limits at the junction of State Routes 164 and 517 last Feb. 9 reverberated in the common pleas court here today with the filing of a $100,000 damage action by the widow of the victim against the firm of Reber & Bichsel, Inc., of Alliance.

The action was filed by Mrs. Helen Frances Kozick, 28-year-old widow of Isadore Kozick, on behalf of herself and three children.

Kozick, driver of a truck of the Kenmar Manufacturing Co. of East Palestine was killed in a collision of his truck and a tractor-trailer outfit of the defendant company driven by John O. Benner at the intersection here known as the Fairgrounds Stop.

Taft, Ebricht Blast Ferguson

Senator Says Auditor Is Motivated By CIO

(By The Associated Press)
State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson, the Democratic senatorial nominee, got a double-barreled blast from both of Ohio's leading Republican political candidates last night.

His opponent, U. S. Sen. Robert A. Taft, charged that the

Joseph T. Ferguson, Democratic candidate for U. S. senator, will tour Columbus county Wednesday, Oct. 25, culminating in a talk that evening in the Salem high school auditorium.

Ferguson's itinerary is being prepared by Louis Tobin of East Liverpool, county chairman, and Attorney Guy J. Mauro, in charge of local arrangements. Plans are still incomplete.

CIO's Political Action Committee is telling Ferguson "what to say and where to go."

And State Treasurer Don H. Ebricht, the Republican gubernatorial nominee, called for an end to what he termed Ferguson's "obstructionist tactics" in the Ohio turnpike surveys.

Stop Whistling
Ferguson, addressing a Democratic rally in Lebanon, said Taft should "stop whistling in the dark" about socialism and loss of personal freedom.

Meanwhile, Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, campaigning for re-election, steered clear of mentioning political candidates. In a tour through southeastern Ohio, the governor expressed concern over soil erosion and depopulation of trees.

Sen. Taft said flatly in a transcribed radio interview from Cincinnati that the CIO-PAC is "running today's campaign" for Ferguson.

Taft repeated his previous contention that the CIO-PAC "was conceived in Communism, had Communist midwives assisting at its birth and was carefully nurtured in its formative period by Communist teachers."

He added that he did not know whether or not the CIO-PAC is "guided by the Communists today."

Out Of Line
Ferguson declared Taft's warnings that Democratic victories Nov. 7 mean socialism and loss of personal freedom "are completely out of line with realities and are indicative of his unreal approach to other problems." He added:

"I am sure that Taft must be aware of the fact that earnings by workers and companies are at an all-time high and were obtained under Democratic administrations."

Ebricht, at a Rotary club meeting in Youngstown, urged an end to "this bickering" between the auditor and the turnpike commission.

Three-Pronged Attack Pushes N. Koreans Back

Stalin Sends Reds Success Message; Air Blows Continue

TOKYO, Oct. 12—(AP)—Tank-led Allied forces pushed steadily ahead toward Pyongyang, the Red Korean capital, on three fronts today.

Some Reds fiercely defended the approaches to the seat of defiant Premier Kim Il Sung's government. Others withdrew.

In the final phases of what looks like stark defeat for the Soviet satellite Koreans, Russia's prime minister Joseph Stalin wished the Korean Reds success. In a message to Kim the boss of the Kremlin expressed hope for establishment "of a united, independent Korea"—Soviet style.

Steps toward the goal of independence and unification under United Nations auspices will be discussed by President Truman and General MacArthur at their Pacific conference this weekend.

On the fighting fronts, the Reds were tasting the bitter medicine they forced on U. N. forces early in the war.

3-Pronged Offensive
Out-numbered and out-gunned, the back-peddling Communist troops strove in vain to stem the three-pronged offensive stabbing at the capital.

Far ahead of the 135-mile front, stretching slant-wise across the peninsula north of parallel 38, Allied planes extended their strikes in Red Korea close to the Manchurian and Siberian borders.

A spokesman at General MacArthur's headquarters said a general withdrawal of from 6,000 to 10,000 Reds from the central sector may have begun. But die-hards were fighting stubbornly on the western end, at Kumchon, and in the northeast, near captured Wonsan port on the Sea of Japan.

Allied gains were reported in field dispatches from the central sector but no wholesale withdrawals were indicated. South Korean Sixth division troops overwhelmed Red resistance at the rail-highway hubs of Kumhwa, Chorwon and Pyongyang.

Those captured cities form a triangle, with Pyongyang at the apex 28 miles north of 38. Roads from them lead northwestward toward Pyongyang. An Eighth army spokesman said there was stubborn and fierce fighting in each town before they were taken.

Join Yank Troops

West of the triangle, U. S. First Cavalry troops were joined by British and Australian troops in their smash on Kumchon, a supposed defense bastion for Pyongyang, which lies 62 miles to the northwest.

AP Correspondent William J. Waugh, with U. S. First Cavalry troops, said two tank-led columns were driving on Kumchon from the south and east, with a third making a wide end run to high ground northwest of the city.

From that high ground, the Cavalry's artillery dominated the road leading northwest from Kumchon toward Pyongyang. Waugh said it was estimated some 20,000 Reds might be trapped in and south of Kumchon. Maj. Gen. Hobart R. Gay, First Cavalry division commander, estimated Wednesday that a total force of 25,000 might be defending the southwestern approaches to Pyongyang.

Seek Soft Spots

Gay said Thursday the Reds lacked the men for a solid defense line, and added: "There are soft spots and we will find them."

His field officers said the advance was slowed more by precautions taken to wipe out all Red pockets than by formidable defenses. The Kumchon-Pyongyang road was heavily mined.

"This won't be as fast, but it will cost less lives," Gay commented.

The Cavalry division had advanced 12 miles above parallel 38 up to noon Thursday.

Leetonia

W. G. Jenkins
Lives MusicSupervisor Also Has
Love For Children

W. GWYNNE Jenkins has two great loves, music and children. Since early in his life, he has combined the two for the never-ending thrill of music to produce enjoyment for singer and audience alike.

He is the living example of his belief that music should not be forgotten when the children leave school. He has actively directed numerous adult vocal groups wherever he has gone.

His principal occupation for the last five years has been that of vocal and instrumental supervisor in the Leetonia school system. Since the inception of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube male chorus, Mr. Jenkins has served as its director.

Having conducted the Youngstown Arion chorus for 15 years, he also was chosen concertmaster for the Youngstown Symphony's performance of "Carmen" and directed the Oratorio, "St. Pauls."

HE WON HIS first championship medal at 16 when he directed a Welsh children's chorus in that country, long-famous for its song-loving people. Mr. Jenkins participated in many of the competitions there, winning some and trailing in others.

However, 22 years ago he came to this country with 42 first-place awards to his credit. He and the groups he has directed have won 20 first-place prizes in the United States.

Mr. Jenkins has guided the voices of choruses ranging in size from 30 to more than 200 people. Both male and female singing groups and a combination of both have had the benefit of his talented direction.

HE HAD ONE good thing to say about the depression. "People had time to sing then."

Mr. Jenkins says, with the assurance of a man who has proved his point, "Our whole society would be enriched if more people would sing and continue their musical experiences into adult activities. The people would receive benefits through church singing and community bands."

He notes that music now is more easily available to children through the expanded school music programs.

A much-sought-after critic and judge, he is generous with his mastery and experience. He will come to Salem Oct. 23 to judge and score the male quartet contest at the high school.

His children have brought another generation of Jenkins song-masters to the fore. His son, Bryn, 29, has sung the lead in the opera, "Down In the Valley," and his daughter, Kathleen, 20, last year was cast in the lead in Gilbert and Sullivan's "Patience," to name but two of their performances.

Ohio Turnpike Work
Halted Temporarily

COLUMBUS, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Two firms told the Ohio turnpike commission yesterday they will not make any more engineering surveys on the proposed super toll highway until they get paid.

And Lawrence Waterbury, partner in one of the firms, said the state auditor's refusal to pay $55,000 in engineering fees may put the turnpike "one whole construction year behind."

The two firms—Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Hall & McDonald, and the J. E. Greiner Co.—made preliminary studies to determine the turnpike's route. But there's more engineering work needed.

Both firms said they will bring a mandamus action in the Ohio supreme court to compel State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson to pay the fees.

Ferguson said recently the reason he refused to make payment was to get a mandamus action before the court in order to determine constitutionality of Ohio's turnpike law.

Japan's PTA Members
Exceed U. S. Total

COLUMBUS, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Japan has the United States "backed off the map" as far as Parent-Teachers Association membership is concerned, the president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers said here last night.

Mrs. John E. Hayes of Twin Falls, Idaho, spent July in Japan, visiting schools. Here are some statistics she brought back:

"For their population of 80,000,000 they have 15,500,000 P. T. A. members. Compare that to our population of 150,000,000 and our P. T. A. membership of 6,167,000."

Mrs. Hayes was here to address the national congress of county and rural school superintendents.

U. S. Army Strength
Gains In Germany

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Lieut. Gen. Manton S. Eddy announced today that "American reinforcements are arriving now in Germany."

"They are reaching Germany as a flow of replacements, not in new units yet," the commander of the U. S. Army in Europe told a news conference here.

He said the Berlin garrison probably would be the first to be increased in strength by additional troops.

Asked if the American command has a plan for evacuating U. S. soldiers from Berlin in case of attack, Eddy voiced a smiling denial.

"There is no evacuation plan at all," he said. "The American soldier will stay here and fight it out in spite of any odds."

Hanoverton

Newly-elected officer for the 7th and 8th grades at Hanoverton school are: President, Donny Mercer; vice president, Sandra Bailey and secretary, Joyce Gamble. Retiring officers are: president, Irving Guthrie; vice-president, Donny Mercer and secretary, Margaret Haynam. The officers will serve a one month term.

Cheer leaders, elected for the year, include Patty Pike, Dolores Snelitzer and Sandra Bailey.

Bankers Told Of Leadership Demands

CANTON, Oct. 12.—All citizens with a sense of responsibility were urged to take part in public and community affairs by speakers at the annual meeting of Group Eight of the Ohio Bankers Association here Wednesday.

Addressing the more than 400 bankers present, Seward D. Schooler, president of the Ohio Bankers Association and president of the Coshocton National bank, said, "Because of our ability and training and the trust imposed in us as bankers, the public has a right to expect us to take an active part in other fields besides our own."

W. L. Sebrall, president of the Alliance First National bank, presided at an afternoon business session.

Paul Geisinger of the National City bank of Cleveland, discussed credit regulations recently imposed by the Federal Reserve bank and Elwood Broadwater, public relations director of the Salem Engineering Co. showed pictures and told of Sam Keener's trip around the world.

Other officers of Group Eight are E. M. Stephenson, president of the Farmers National bank of Salem, vice chairman, and Charles M. Bargar, vice president of the People National bank of Steubenville, secretary-treasurer.

Two Men Who Never Met

THE meeting between Harry Truman who became President of the United States and Douglas MacArthur who became a legendary military figure is what newspapers call a human-interest story.

The two men have never met. Mr. Truman knew the name MacArthur as long ago
as World War I when he was in the artillery and Douglas MacArthur commanded the Rainbow Division. But the chances are the latter never heard of Harry Truman until the political deal which led to Mr. Truman's election as vice president of the United States in 1944.

At that time MacArthur, called out of retirement after he had been chief-of-staff for the army from 1935 to 1937, had been commander of U.S. forces in the Far East for three and one-half years. Since 1942 he had been supreme commander of all Allied forces in the Southwest Pacific. The MacArthur legend was on its way.

It has grown steadily. Gen. MacArthur stayed on in the Orient after the end of the war with Japan to become a kind of international proconsul, a unique role made even more dramatic by his designation last summer as commander of the United Nations forces in the Korean war. He never has chosen to return to the United States since assumption of Asiatic responsibilities. That is the evident reason why President Truman has gone to meet him at a rendezvous in the Pacific. Even a chief executive must defer to the MacArthur legend.

And what is the legend?

Merely this: That of American soldier-patriot with a single-minded devotion to his sworn duty to protect his country's interests
under all circumstances.

Mr. Truman, having seen perhaps too much of professed patriots willing to serve their country on their own conditions, should enjoy meeting the man behind the legend of a real patriot.

Men And Boys

THE World Series, with proper respect to the Phillies for pressing the Yankees into playing their best, was one of those occasions for separating the men and boys. There has been a lot of that going on lately.

The men and the boys in Washington have had to stand up and be counted since the Korean war. Boys posing as men are capable of doing a lot of damage in Washington—and have done a lot of it these last several years.

There has been a separation of men and boys in the armed services, where some of the boys had jumped to the conclusion they need not mess around any longer with some of the more annoying hardships of fighting men.

It looks as if some sort of a weeding-out process might be getting under way in cities whose punko-politico situations are being sniffed over by the Kefauver committee. Specifically, it looks as if some politicians with illusions of making the Hall of Fame might have to share jail cells, instead, with the punks they were allied with in crime.

All of this, of course, is an injustice to the Phillies, who did not lose the World Series because they were youthful but because they could not hit Yankee pitching. A lot of seasoned ballplayers during the season of 1950
had the same trouble—many of them grizzled veterans who haven't been boys for longer than they can remember.

On The Thickness Of Skin

DEAN ACHESON, the secretary of state, has pointed out that public life in the United States is no place for thin-skinned people. Referring to the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune which have pierced his hide, he calls officeholding a "hard school."

Experience keeps a hard school, too. There may be one aspect of the criticism which
Mr. Acheson refers to that he has not understood clearly. The criticism was directed at Mr. Acheson's ideas, not at Mr. Acheson.
It was not personal abuse that made him winced but differences of opinion. Many believed and still do that he has much to learn about being secretary of state.

No man in public life in the United States can expect his countrymen to accept all his ideas. That is why this republic continues to be a free society. Anyone who cannot tolerate a difference of opinion is going to have a rough ride.

A public official believing every difference of opinion is an attack might as well give up. His over-sensitive skin will be as full of holes as a target on a marine firing range.
That seems to be what Mr. Acheson is thinking about.

He evidently is growing a thicker skin.
Best of luck to him, because there is going to be no let-up in slings and arrows.

Wages In Britain

By PETER EDSON

Control Plan Might Prove Helpful To U. S.

BRITISH experience in trying to control wages offers a number of pointers for the United States, now toying with ideas of manpower and wage controls in those industries where any attempt shall be made to ration supplies or control prices. What this experience adds up to is the fact that holding the line on wages is difficult, even when the labor unions themselves are officially for it.

Decisions taken by the British Trades Union Council at its recent Brighton meeting gave some impression in America that British labor was ready to abandon altogether this policy of downholding, thus forcing the hand of the British Labour Party which controls the government.
But the record shows that it is not that simple.

Since June, 1947, the British cost of living index has gone up 13 per cent. Wages have gone up only 10 per cent. But real earnings of the workers have advanced 20 per cent.

Labor unions complain that the profits of industry have gone far above these increases. But the Labour government replies that profits are really controlled and soaked up by high taxes.

THERE HAS BEEN considerable press criticism that the Labour Party should adopt a new wage policy. There have been no specific suggestions on what that policy should be. Spokesmen for the Labour Ministry say that the government's policy has been not to try to fix wages, but to allow free collective bargaining between management and the unions. The granting of wage increase incentives, where they would increase production, has been favored.

The British postwar experience with this policy really goes back to February, 1948, when the government issued its White Paper on "Wages, Prices and Profits."

At the end of the war there had been the equivalent of one round of wage increases, largely through reduction of hours to 44 or 48 per week. With price and rationing controls being relaxed
somewhat, there was danger of inflation. The White Paper attempted to explain these factors.
And the Trades Union Council accepted this statement of policy
by deciding to restrain union demands for wage increases, to support the Labour Party.

Devaluation of the British pound in September, 1949, changed this position somewhat. Pressure for wage increases became greater, particularly from the lower-paid industries. The following January, the TUC by a smaller majority modified its position.
It agreed to suspend automatic cost-of-living wage increases.
Actually, they were never suspended.

In June, TUC issued still another document. It reported that while economic conditions were then better, they were still not good enough to grant indiscriminate wage increases. The Council offered to give advice to unions
on whether they should ask for increases. This was the situation when the TUC met at Brighton last month and appeared to be abandoning the Labour Party by a new wage policy.

THE ONE FACTOR now given credit for causing most of the discontent at Brighton was the government's recent decision to increase pay of the armed services by 21 shillings a week. This was done to encourage enlistments and offset opposition to increasing periods of service
from one and a half to two years.

To the TUC delegates, however, this was interpreted as, "If the government can afford to pay more to the armed services, it can afford to let all wages rise."

Union officials framed new demands, in order to get them on the starting line early. Several unauthorized strikes (principally a North London gas strike stirred up by Communists) made it appear that the wage stabilization had broken down.

Actually, it is claimed by Trades Union Council spokesmen that the TUC has not decided on what its wage policy will be. TUC leaders will have further conferences with H. T. N. Gaiskell, Minister of State for Economic Affairs and a rising young Labour Party official. Profits of industry will be a major factor. A new wage-price-profits policy may be in the making. Britain has relatively full employment, at 26,000,000. Unemployment is about 600,000. Some 250,000 workers are needed for expanding defense industries.

A new wage level may be developing. But if it is, it will be a result of natural economic forces, stronger than any political attempts at restraint.

Good Sportsmanship

The News:
The purpose of this letter is to find out whether any effort is made on the part of the teachers or the faculties or coaching staffs of our schools to teach our youngsters "good sportsmanship." Are they ever taught to appreciate, and show that appreciation, for the abilities of an opposing team?

Are they taught that in the field of sports the one thing
worse than a poor loser is a poor winner? Or are they taught that the essential thing is to win—no matter how? Just win! Several things indicate to me that the latter is the case.

Several weeks ago I attended the Shaker game. As I was entering the stadium a group of four or five Shaker girls preceded me. Several Salem oys (aged 10 to 12) ran up to them and yelled, "Are you from Shaker?"
The girls said, "Yes, we are."
"Boo," was the reply from our kids.

Is that the general treatment
every place to visitors? Last year on two occasions I heard the visiting bands "booed" as they entered Reilly stadium. I am sure there are others than myself who can derive a lot of satisfaction
from a game hard, well and cleanly played, even though we may lose. Usually there is a loser in every game.

This week we meet a weak Wellsville team. According to reports, we should beat them with the third string. But this little school has a band which for two years has taken the championship from other larger schools in the county. It is really a privilege and pleasure to watch and hear this band. I wonder if our students (only a few, I'll grant you) will boo this band. That few should be the object of correction by their teachers and classmates. Visiting teams and bands should look forward to coming to Salem.

A coach's job usually depends on turning out a winning team.
This is a reflection of the whole community, albeit erroneous. It is, once again, our desire to win which is paramount. Certainly no particular credit should accrue
to a coach who wins the majority of his games when the schedules

So They Say

The only way for the Republican Party to become the majority party of our country is to bring in the young people. They are the ever-growing strength of our organization.—Guy Gabrielson, Republican national committee

are studied with schools like Columbiana, East Palestine, Lisbon, Wellsville, etc. I feel certain that either you or I could coach
a team which could do better than 500 against such opposition.

Rather should we judge a coach by his ability to teach his boys good sportsmanship. Whether his team wins or loses will be forgotten in a year or two, but good, clean, upright, honest
young men will always be a credit to the community. It's possible to be a successful coach too,
such as Sam Willaman, who still placed honesty and fair play above all else. Ask anyone who ever played under him.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to award some sort of prize, cup or special letter, to the player on each of our athletic teams who is judged the cleanest and best liked player for the season? Allow the officials of the games a vote too.
These could be sponsored by the school itself, the Boosters Club or any civic organization who really has the future of our community, its citizens and its boys and girls at heart.

There's my idea. Can't we make something of it? The reward will be great if we can.

Truman-MacArthur Conference

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON
PRESIDENT Truman made a ten-strike when he decided to have a personal meeting with General MacArthur. The contact will prove invaluable in many ways.

Recently busybodies have been trying to stir up friction between the General and the White House.
Inspired articles have appeared in the press by persons anxious to emphasize points of difference. Dispatches emanating from Tokyo have been cited to make it appear that the General in some way is playing a game trying to benefit the Republicans.
All this is the veriest nonsense,
but it has its influence behind the scenes in creating a stand-offishness that is not conducive to smooth operation between the President and his top General in the Pacific.

Entirely apart from the above,
the President undoubtedly has come to recognize that some of his emissaries to the Far East have not come back with a clear picture of what is in the General's mind. Douglas MacArthur knows more about the Far East than anybody else in the military service, and he is entitled to present at first hand his views on what is strategically necessary to defend American interests
there.

The personal visit will afford an opportunity for such an exchange of ideas. It will be noted, however, that quite a sizable entourage of advisers of the President is going along. Some of these advisers are more concerned with international politics than the considerations of military strategy. Mr. Truman will need all the horse sense he can muster—and he has a lot of it—to reach a decision as to what is a good course to follow with respect to the military and naval problems of the Far East.

THE BALD FACT, for instance, is that Communist China is now controlled by Moscow. This means many new submarine bases and many air bases close to the Philippines and close to Japan. It is a brand new military dilemma for the United States, on both a short-range and a long-range basis. No man is better qualified to discuss the strategy that must be developed to meet the contingencies that can arise in the Pacific than General MacArthur.

The trip will naturally be appraised by the political minded
as a piece of smart politics. During the 1944 campaign, the late President Roosevelt traveled to Hawaii to meet General MacArthur. It was played up in the press as a journey by the commander-in-chief. It so happens that Mr. Truman's prestige as commander-in-chief has been played down of late. So the trip will be useful politically, too.

Coincidence with these angles is the very important matter of developing more prestige for the United Nations. The U.N. selected General MacArthur as its commander in Korea, and it is important that, when Mr. Truman speaks before the U.N., he shall be able to say that he discussed personally some of the very issues about which the U.N.
is concerned—namely, the restoration of Korea and the policies that must be followed when North Korea is fully conquered.

Mr. Truman, it has been announced, will make a foreign policy speech in San Francisco
after he returns from his visit to the Pacific. This affords an opportunity to get nation-wide attention, as well as Pacific coast attention, to the phases of foreign policy which have stirred up much opposition there.

THE PRESIDENT may wish to explain what the attitude of the United States is going to be toward Red China in the future and what America's attitude must be toward an any government which shows itself incapable of discharging international obligations and of obeying the principles of civilized intercourse among nations.

Communist China is being considered for admission to the U.N.
Security Council after the congressional elections—a move that may agitate also the matter of diplomatic recognition. There are observers who think Communist China can be weaned away from Moscow. The advice in that direction is vehemently challenged
by others, who think that there can be no compromise with Communism on any front.

But these underlying issues,
which are so difficult for any President to deal with, can be better understood when the military phases are thoroughly presented. This is something that top-level men in the Pentagon have often emphasized. Certainly the defense planners in the United States will feel much better satisfied after the Truman-MacArthur conference than a continuation of the exchanges by cable and press dispatches.

Patriot

By HAL BOYLE
South Korean Is Hero

KOREA

THE tall young American had been 69 days behind enemy lines after his squad had been destroyed in a machine-gun ambush at Kochang.

Hal Boyle

For two days and nights
he had been hiking across the mountains hoping to reach Taegu.

"I was hopelessly lost,"
said Lt. Joseph Hicks of Cobden, Ill., "and my strength was about gone."
He met two South Korean peasants and by gestures let them know he was starving. He had eaten nothing but a bowl of rice and two rice balls in nine days. The two men led him into a small home. A third man entered the room and the first disappeared. Hicks never saw them again. But the third man saved his life.

He wasn't an impressive looking figure—slender and mild of face. But heroes come in strange packages. For the next 60 days
the young South Korean risked his own life,
the lives of his family and the life of his village to hide the lost lieutenant from Red troops.

And all his own life Hicks will wonder why he did it.

"He had nothing to gain by it," said the lieutenant. "He was well to do. He had six children. He knew that if the enemy found that he was hiding an American they would kill him and his family and burn down the village as an object lesson. And it would have been the easiest thing in the world for him to have turned me in quietly. No one would have known."

OR THIS OBSCURE patriot—his name
can't yet be disclosed—could have given Hicks
some rice and sent him on to make a foolish break for safety through North Korean lines massed along the Nakdong river. Instead, he told him by sign language it was impossible to get through.

"He hid me in a hole near the ancient temple of Heinsa," said Hicks. "The next day he explained I couldn't stay there. It was too dangerous."

"The Reds, figuring the Americans wouldn't bomb the temple, were keeping four to six hundred troops there every night, then moving them on toward the front the next day."

So his new friend took Hicks 2½ miles into the hills and helped him camouflage a hideaway under a rock. Although he had been hired by the Reds as a civilian detective
to guard the Heinsa temple, the South Korean managed once a week to bring rice to the lieutenant and tell him how the war was going.

"I was safe at night," said Hicks, "but I had to keep a sharp lookout for Red patrols
during the day."

He stayed there more than a month. Then on a dark and rainy day his friend came and explained by signs the Reds were searching the area for American stragglers. "Bang-bang," he said, using the standard South Korean description of the enemy. He helped Hicks find a new hideout three miles higher in the mountains.

"I had no blankets and it was too risky to build a fire at night to keep warm," Hicks said.

"I cooked the rice he brought me during the day over a charcoal fire. That was safe enough because the charcoal did not smoke."

ON SEPT. 25—Hicks then had been behind the enemy lines since July 29—his benefactor came and said the Americans had made a great breakthrough. But he warned it was still unsafe for Hicks to try to escape through the chaotic Red lines.

"So I gave him a note to take to the nearest American outfit," said Hicks. "I gave my position and asked them to send a patrol there as soon as they could. I put one of my dogtags in the note to identify myself."

Eight days later the South Korean returned after an 80-mile round trip on foot. He had delivered the note but came back with bad news.

"The Americans were afraid it was just a trick by the Reds to lure them into another ambush," recalled Hicks.

But by then the crumbling enemy lines had almost disintegrated. The young South Korean disguised Hicks as a peasant. And on Oct. 4 he led the lieutenant for several miles along a road cluttered with disorganized, fleeing Red soldiers into the American lines.

Now Hicks would like to do something to repay the loyalty of his benefactor. But he is strangely helpless.

"I can't offer him money because he is well off already," said the lieutenant. "I guess I will never be able to understand why he did what he did for me. All I can do the rest of my life is to be grateful to him. And it makes me feel a little funny to realize we will probably never even see each other again."

Civilization Is Not Getting Worse

NEW YORK CIVILIZATION may be thrown for loss from time to time, but by and large it continues to stagger onward and upward, bearing aloft that strange device "excelsior."

This is not so much my conclusion as that of Billy Riorden, international bon vivant and host at the newly reopened Rockefeller saloon, and Rainbow Room, sixty-five stories up amid the clouds of Rockefeller Centre.

Man and boy, Mr. Riorden has been a fixture of lobster palaces both here and abroad since World War I, when he served in France with the Columbia University unit of the American ambulance service.

Since that time, no one has had a more concentrated, constant or clinical view of the world's good time Charlies than he. His has been an uninterrupted study since the days when he was a dancing partner of Irene Castle at the long-gone Knickerbocker Grill and the Palace theatre in New York.

He spent America's prohibition years taking his master's degree in the urbane humanities as host at the Palace hotel in Switzerland's ski capital, St. Moritz. And during World War II, he came back to New York where, for eight years, he has been taking his Ph. D. in liberal life and arts as assistant to Prof. S. Billingsley at the Stork club.

But let us return to Mr. Riorden's original thesis that civilization is still on the up-grade: he points with pride to the disappearance of the Bronx cocktail and the Pousse cafe as proof positive that man is not only getting better but soberer.

"You won't believe it, but in to wines, but since when has that been a crime, he would like to know.

Mr. Riorden, who looks like a cross between an Irish pixie and the late Mayor Jimmy Walker, has been called to preside over the Rainbow room, which has been closed since Jan. 1, 1943, in its new manifestation.

The room, first opened by the Rockefeller clan as a full-fledged night club just sixteen years ago, is now open to the public only for cocktails, from 4:30 to 10 p. m., or long enough to get lushed up if one puts his mind to it.

The Rockefeller were planning to open it full blast just as the Korean war came along. Plans were hastily revised and it will be open for cocktails and snacks until a big-scale war closes it down again or full-scale peace warrants a full-time night club.

Billy Riorden, who grew up in the days when a deb checked her girdle at the ballroom door and a gentleman was naked without hip flasks, has stocked the Rainbow room with a vast supply of milk and soft drinks.

"Young folks just don't drink like their old folks used to twenty-five or thirty years ago," he said and he marvelled at the younger generation's Chesterfieldian manners.

"Unbelievable," he murmured, "when you remember their mothers . . ."

Portsmouth Offender 'Sentenced' To Church
PORTSMOUTH, Oct. 12.—A municipal court judge has ordered a Portsmouth housewife to attend church every Sunday for a year—or spend 30 days in jail

The unusual sentence was imposed on Mrs. Violet Copley, 36, after being convicted on an assault and battery charge before Judge Kenneth Cranston.

A neighbor had charged that Mrs. Copley struck her with a toy ball bat.

Mrs. Copley elected to attend church for the next year.

Inez Robb

when he served in France with the Columbia University unit of the American ambulance service.

Since that time, no one has had a more concentrated, constant or clinical view of the world's good time Charlies than he. His has been an uninterrupted study since the days when he was a dancing partner of Irene Castle at the long-gone Knickerbocker Grill and the Palace theatre in New York.

He spent America's prohibition years taking his master's degree in the urbane humanities as host at the Palace hotel in Switzerland's ski capital, St. Moritz. And during World War II, he came back to New York where, for eight years, he has been taking his Ph. D. in liberal life and arts as assistant to Prof. S. Billingsley at the Stork club.

But let us return to Mr. Riorden's original thesis that civilization is still on the up-grade: he points with pride to the disappearance of the Bronx cocktail and the Pousse cafe as proof positive that man is not only getting better but soberer.

"You won't believe it, but in my salad days, a man about town not only drank Bronx cocktails, a carousing mixture of orange juice and gin, but," said Mr. Riorden, shuddering convulsively, "when he was able to drink a Pousse cafe layer by layer, he was a Scott Fitzgerald character cum laude."

"YOU CANNOT tell me that a nation that prefers the old-fashioned to the Bronx cocktail and an honest Martini to a Pousse cafe is not marked by destiny for great things," said Mr. R. as he surveyed his new kingdom, the resurrected Rainbow Room.

The Old-Fashioned is definitely America's favorite cocktail, he opined, with the Martini in second place. Furthermore, despite much calumny on the part of visitors from abroad, Americans don't lap up liquor any faster than any other nationality, in the experience of Mr. Riorden.

Americans still prefer whiskey

I. H. S. Class Holds Anniversary Dinner

REV. G. D. KEISTER, pastor, gave an inspirational talk when the I. H. S. class of Holy Trinity Lutheran church celebrated its 11th anniversary with a covered dinner meeting in the church social room Tuesday evening.

Rev. Keister stressed the importance of the church, home, school and nation in their relation to the life of an individual. Mrs. Charles Youtz was in charge of the program. These numbers were given:

Musical pantomime, Larry and Donna Stoffer; vocal duet, Lois and Dale Schaefer; accordion selections, Larry Muntz and Dolores Duke; recitation, Bonnie Moushey; violin solo, David Platt, with Mrs. Charles Becknell as the accompanist; violin duet, Charles Becknell and David Platt, with Mrs. Becknell at the piano; piano and violin duet, Mr. and Mrs. Becknell.

Olin Muntz was in charge of two comic movies.

Albert DeWan officiated at the business session when plans were made to sponsor an intermediate Girl Scout troop. Mrs. Nevin Halvstad will represent the class on the Girl Scout council.

Mrs. Olin Muntz and Mrs. Wade Schaefer made up the dining room committee.

Autumn Motif Used At Baptist Meeting

AN AUTUMN decorative motif made the First Baptist chapel beautiful Tuesday evening for a meeting of the Women's Missionary society. Thirty members attended.

Mrs. N. W. Kelley, program chairman, gave a scripture reading. The topic, "How Can We Make A Better Christian Community?" was discussed by Mrs. J. W. Bennett, program leader, Mrs. William Sproat, Mrs. Walter Albaugh, Mrs. George Talbot and Mrs. Frank Brudery.

After the group sang "America" Mrs. Merle Miller gave a devotional talk on "Christian Friendliness." Mrs. R. J. Hunter reviewed "Mission News."

Mrs. Frank Brudery reported on the White Cross quota. Hostesses, Mrs. Reed Calkins, Mrs. B. H. Calkins, Mrs. L. S. Richards, Mrs. Merle Miller, Mrs. R. C. Stirling and Mrs. William Sproat served refreshments in the social room. Halloween appointments were used effectively.

This society will entertain the Young Women's Missionary society Nov. 14.

Mrs. Walter Hiltbrand Entertains Emanon Club

Mrs. Baxter received a gift from her secret pal. Two new members were added—Mrs. Walter Minth and Mrs. Glen Couchie. Lunch was served. The Oct. 24 meeting will be with Mrs. Everhart, S. Madison ave.

LOST 152 LBS. RESULTS HAVE BEEN ABSOLUTELY ASTONISHING

William S. Hill writes: "Rennel Concentrate results have been absolutely astonishing. I am 55 years old. When I started using Rennel Concentrate I weighed 403 lbs. I have lost 152 lbs. in less than a year. My nerves are getting better gradually since I have been reducing. I am enjoying my life for the first time in a long time. I used to be sluggish and always tired. Now I feel much younger and gayer. My friends have commented over the change in me. I will continue to take Rennel until I get down to the weight I want to be."

Thousands of others have overcome

the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. No expensive vitamins to fortify your system from weakness while going without food for you can eat normally. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more youthful curves—if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Note how quickly blood disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Insist on Rennel.

Presbyterian Group
Mrs. Riddle's Guest

MRS. MABEL RIDDLE entertained 10 members of the Presbyterian February committee, and a guest, Wednesday afternoon at her home on E. Sixth st. Mrs. Charles Oertel assisted the hostess.

"Everyday Religion" was the theme of the worship service conducted by Mrs. Luella Harris in which she emphasized the fact that free men are real men, but when God is excluded men are slaves.

Mrs. Ralph Long, Sr., key missionary woman of this group, discussed plus-giving and the November thanksgiving. She told why there are missionary boards and the results obtained in their various fields of activity.

The financial report was given by Mrs. A. S. Greenamyer.

Tribute was paid to the memory of the late Mrs. Price Cope, who was active in the work of the committee and of the church until her death last week.

Mrs. Joseph Greenwood and Mrs. Gale Dougherty are co-chairmen of the committee. Plans were made for the dessert luncheon meeting Nov. 8 at the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson on N. Ellsworth ave. Mrs. Harry Kelly is associate hostess. Mrs. Greenwood will entertain at the Christmas party in December and Mrs. Long will plan the program.

Mrs. Riddle and Mrs. Oertel used the Halloween theme for their attractive table appointments and gave each guest a hat to wear to add to the party atmosphere.

Without Painful Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Talk On Trip Given
To Methodist Group

MRS. G. K. SCHWARTZ gave an entertaining talk on her trip to Palestine at a meeting of Group 7 of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service Tuesday evening at the church. Thirty-four members and five visitors attended.

Miss Eleanor McMurray, devotional leader, used for her subject, "Land of Beauty," and illustrated it with slides. She was assisted by Miss Inez Heisler who read the 19th Psalm from the Bible and a poem, "Out In The Fields."

Mrs. Carl J. Beecher offered two cello solos, "Evening Star" and "Taranella," accompanied by Mrs. Homer S. Taylor. Mrs. R. C. Swogger sang a solo, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," with her daughter, Patricia, at the piano.

Refreshments were served by Miss Zillah Stamp, Mrs. Leonard Hopkes, Miss Dorothy Ditty and Mrs. Carl Krichbaum.

Political Discussion
Held By Homemakers

A political discussion enlivened a meeting of the Vernal Grove Homemakers club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Fultz, Newgarden rd. Fifteen members were present. Mrs. William Hoopes officiated in the absence of the president and vice president. Readings also entertained.

A gift was made to the Carol Ann Girard medical fund. Mrs. Hoopes assisted her mother in serving lunch. Nov. 8 meeting will be with Mrs. Arlan Fultz, Newgarden rd.

20 At Surprise Party
For Phyllis Maurer

The 15th birthday of Phyllis Maurer was made happy when 20 friends and relatives carried out a surprise for her Monday evening at her home, R. D. 4, Salem. Fifteen of the guests were her school friends.

The celebration opened with the game of rhythm. For a scavenger hunt the guests were divided into three groups. Winners were awarded a prize.

MISS Dorothy Ann Kornbau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kornbau of R. D. 1, Leetonia, became the bride of Robert Carlisle, son of Emmett Carlisle and the late Mrs. Carlisle of Washingtonville, at 7 p.m. Oct. 6 in the Washingtonville Methodist church.

Rev. A. R. Brown performed the single-ring ceremony which was witnessed by a large group of friends and relatives.

The altar was decorated with lighted candles and red roses. Dahlias and mums decorated the church.

Miss Vivian Bates of Salem played the nuptial music. The chorus from Lohengrin heralded the approach of the bridal party. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a grey suit with black accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

Miss Averill Longbottom, a schoolmate of the bride, was maid of honor. Her costume was of grey wool with brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kornbau was attired in a black and rose print and wore a corsage of pink roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The traditional three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and baked by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Kornbau and Mrs. Perry Hilliard, graced the refreshment table.

More than 75 relatives and friends were greeted by the newlyweds. Mrs. Robert Kornbau, Miss Thelma Gwynne and Miss Patty Tullis, schoolmates of the bride, served.

The bride and groom left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada and upon their return will reside with bride's parents.

Local Couples Visit
Pastors During Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Vincent visited two former pastors of the Salem Presbyterian church during their recent trip in mid-western states.

In Flint, Mich., they saw Rev. David Molyneux and in Evansville, Ind., they visited with Rev. Roy Allison.

They also stopped in Dubuque, Iowa where they visited Mrs. Jack Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Vincent. During their 2,800-mile trip, they visited friends and relatives at Mora, Minn., and Farmington, Mo.

Columbiana

School Program

To Entertain Pupils
Twice Every Month

COLUMBIANA, Oct. 12—Benjamin Firestone Post, American Legion, will begin next Monday the second year of its Le-Hi nights, when students of Columbiana High school are guests of the post two nights a month and have the use of its recreational facilities from 7:30 to 10 p. m.

These events are scheduled for the first and third Mondays of every month. Members of the Legion and their wives serve as hosts at each party, and the post extends invitations to parents of students, ministers of Columbiana, city officials, and all citizens interested in the welfare of the youth of Columbiana school district.

The post committee has an interesting program for the year, which will include dancing, canasta, ping pong, television and films. Each student will receive a membership card, and in turn must agree to the post regulations, which set a standard for behavior and the use of post facilities.

The regulations prohibit smoking, drinking alcoholic beverages, gambling, disorderly conduct, and damaging or marking of post property. No guests will be permitted. Any student desiring to leave before closing time is requested to excuse himself to a member of the committee in charge. Free refreshments will be served at the first party next Monday evening.

ONE HUNDRED men and women were served by the auxiliary of Firestone American Legion post at the Columbiana-Leetonia Democratic dinner at the Legion home on North Pearl st. Wednesday evening. All parts of the county and parts of the 18th congressional district were represented.

After dinner, county Democratic Chairman Louis Tobin of East Liverpool introduced guests and turned the meeting over to Don Gosney of Columbiana, president of the Young Democrats of Columbiana County, who presided. Before introducing Congressman Wayne L. Hays of Flushing, Gosney presented county and state senatorial district candidates.

Congressman Hays praised the present 81st congress for having doubled social security payments and for having doubled the insurance on bank deposits, which he said were not socialistic measures. He described the deplorable conditions he found on a visit to some of the communist countries of Europe, and disclaimed any leanings toward socialism or communism. On his visit to the pope at Rome, he said, in company with Catholics, Protestants and Jews, they knelt with the pope at the pope's request in a prayer for world peace.

Columbiana Briefs:

The Columbiana Mothers' club will meet at the home of Mrs. George Hart, North Court st., at 8:30 p. m., Monday. Dr. C. W. Dewalt will speak on "Diabetes." Mrs. Fred Fritch will be associate hostess.

A meeting for all Republican women, sponsored by the Columbiana Women's Republican club, will be held in city hall Monday at 2:30 p. m., when information concerning state and county candidates will be given. The new office-type ballot to be used at the November election will be explained and sample ballots will be available.

Edward Webber, carpenter contractor, who is building the H. C. Nolan residence on North Vine st., fell from the scaffold about 14 feet to the ground at 2 p. m., Tuesday, and was taken to Salem City Hospital. While his injuries did not appear serious, their extent had not been determined.

Panora Lodge of Odd Fellows will have its annual observance of old-timers' night, Oct. 24. Past Grand Master J. M. Elliott of Youngstown will be the speaker and there will be a program of entertainment.

Georganne Race of East Liverpool, graduate of Mount Union College, has assumed her duties as a teacher in the fifth grade of the Columbiana schools, taking the place of Mrs. Carolyn Orr who resigned.

The Columbiana Clippers will play Leetonia here Friday night.

The three circles of the Presbyterian Women's association will meet Oct. 19, Circle 1 at the home of Mrs. Lynus Shaffer of Union st. at 8 p. m.; Circle 2 at the home of Mrs. J. A. Crawford, 117 East Park ave., at 8:30 p. m.; and Circle 3 at the home of Mrs. Herbert Smith, Public Square, at 8 p. m., with Mrs. John Cox as associate hostess.

Scientists have estimated that it takes 1000 years of weathering to make one inch of soil.

The redwood is the only tree known to possess a living heart. Strips of living cells run through the heartwood.

Donors' Blood Processed By Mobile Unit

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 12.—(AP)—A 32-foot, refrigerated truck that will process human blood for medical uses was given its first showing today at the National Academy of Sciences meeting, held at the General Electric company's new research laboratory.

The truck is the beginning of a new, national blood program. It will be driven directly to donors' homes. In it, their fresh blood will be processed by new automatic machines that extract every vital substance. Only salt water is left when the robots finish. This water is nearly three-fourths of your blood.

This human water will contain some alcohol, added to aid blood fraction separations.

The truck was demonstrated by Dr. Edwin J. Cohn, director of the Harvard University laboratory of physical chemistry, and a group of scientists who made the blood separation discoveries.

The program, for which this is the first of a dozen or more trucks to be scattered over the United States, is sponsored by the National Institute of Health, office of naval research, United States public health service and American National Red Cross, with support of the United States atomic energy commission.

Fight Looms Over Color TV

FCC OK's CBS System, Other Firms Object

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12—(AP)—A threat of court action and further major delays hung over home color television today despite an official go-ahead for the Columbia Broadcasting System's method.

The Federal Communications Commission announced late yesterday that it had made final its previous tentative selection of the CBS system as the national color television plan. CBS immediately promised to "promote (it) to the hilt."

Plan Injunction

But Isidor Goldberg, president of the Pilot Radio Corp., said in New York his firm will seek an injunction to stay the FCC's action. Declaring that the commission should have delayed the decision for another nine months, Goldberg said, "we very definitely plan injunction proceedings."

The action also came under fire from the Radio Corporation of America, developer of one competing color TV system ruled out by the FCC. The other was developed by Color Television, Inc.

David Sarnoff, board chairman of RCA, said in a statement issued in New York that the public interest will not be served by forced adoption of a "degraded" and incompatible system.

Oppose System

What engineers call the incompatibility of the CBS system is the fact that its color signals cannot be picked up, even in black and white, by existing sets, of which nearly 8,000,000 are in the hands of the public.

"We regard this decision as scientifically unsound and against the public interest," Sarnoff said.

"The hundreds of millions of dollars that present set owners would have to spend and that future set owners would have to pay to obtain a degraded picture . . . reduces today's order to an absurdity."

Sarnoff also hinted that RCA will not accept the FCC decision without a fight.

Ohio Court To Hear Two Appeal Cases

COLUMBUS, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court agreed yesterday to hear the appeal of a Stark county woman convicted on a charge of performing an abortion on a woman who later died.

Esther Karcher was convicted on the charge after Alice Bailey died. The conviction was upheld by an appellate court.

The high court also agreed to consider an appeal by five Lowellville (Mahoning county) residents who seek removal of two councilmen.

The residents charged the councilmen, Joseph Coppola and George M. Schram, with selling goods and services to the village of Lowellville in 1940 while holding office.

Probate court ruled against the residents, sustaining the councilmen's contention that the charges involved former terms rather than current posts that began Jan. 1. The appellate court affirmed the lower court.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Orphans Are Awarded $29,000 Settlement

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12—(AP)—Six orphans whose father died in a liquid gas explosion have been awarded $29,000.

The money goes to the children of Patrick J. Moran, 33, a gas company meter man who was one of at least 135 persons killed in an explosion and fire at the East Ohio Gas Co. in 1944.

The settlement was made in probate court by the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Co. and the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Co. Both firms were affiliated in the construction of the gas company's storage tanks.

All of the children are at St. Joseph's orphanage at Erie, Pa. Their mother died Aug. 5 after she "worked herself to death" trying to support them, Joseph McDonough, estate administrator, said.

FROM THE REFINERY YOU ASKED US TO BUILD

It is significant that several thousand Ohio citizens will be on hand tomorrow afternoon to help us dedicate the new SOHIO Lima Refinery. And it would be even more fitting if we could make room for all seven million Ohioans!

For YOU asked us to build this refinery. You asked for it by driving hundreds of thousands more cars here in Ohio.

You asked for it by showing great willingness to buy the best product at the most favorable price!

And even if you never choose to stop at the Sohio sign (though we hope you will), you'll benefit, because the new and better gasolines and lubricating oils from this plant will stimulate improvements in all brands.

The great fluid catalytic cracker put to work making gasoline at Lima a year ago brought Ohio the greatest motor fuel development in 20 years... new Sohio X-TANE, the premium-rated gasoline that sells at regular gas price.

Now, the completion of the $13,000,000 lubricating oil plant foreshadows the same kind of advancement in motor oils.

It has taken a total investment of some $33,000,000 to make Lima Refinery into the plant we needed to keep ahead. Quite frankly, we didn't have all the money . . . but your vote at the gasoline pump gave us earnings enough to make it possible to borrow the rest, and we went ahead.

Your free choice . . . and the competition it stimulates . . . are the heart and soul of America's strength and progress. And such is the pace of that progress that no sooner is the cement set, the steel welded, the new giant working, than we must set our sights on future improvements!

Here, as always, the ultimate benefit goes to the public . . . in better products at the most favorable price in time of peace . . . and in a strengthened national security.

Salem To Observe Dads Night

Grid Fathers To Be Honored

Crack Wellsville Band To Perform At Game

The proud fathers of Salem High football players will have their moment in the spotlight Friday when the Quakers observe "Dads Night" at the Wellsville game.

The fathers will be seated on chairs on the west sidelines and will be introduced at halftime. The intermission will be extended to 25 minutes this week to allow time for the introductions.

The Quakers Friday will wear their white jerseys, contrasting the black of Wellsville. Officials for the game are Joe Zerilla of Ambridge, Pa., Andy Lindsay, John Holzbach and Al Sebastian all of Youngstown.

Wellsville is expected to bring quite a number of followers to the game. Earlier this week, 300 reserved seat tickets were sent to the river community.

The visitors, meanwhile, will be intent on showing they are not quite the underdog they have been painted. Flushed with their first victory in two seasons, the Bengals will attempt to extend their "streak" to two.

The Quakers will be out after No. 5 and attempting to bolster their state rating, which last week was 32nd. Ben Barrett's aerial minded offense is in high gear, judging from last week's encounter at Canton.

No injuries hamper the varsity squad and all players are ready for action.

That action will begin at 7:45.

Reash, Smith Head Wittenberg Frosh

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 12 — George Reash and Jerry Smith, two former Salem High School football standouts, will be co-captains of the Wittenberg College freshman football squad as they play the Kenyon College junior varsity team at Gambier Saturday afternoon.

Reash, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Reash, 344 W. Fifth street, Salem, will start at quarterback and Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Smith, 1263 N. Ellsworth, Salem, will start at the guard position. It will be the opening game of the season for the Fighting Lutheran frosh.

Columbiana High Joins New Class B League

Columbiana High school this week pulled out of the 18-year-old Tri-County League to enter the newly-formed Inter-County football and basketball league. Leetonia High, which had considered entering the new loop, decided to remain in Tri-County competition.

The new league will be comprised of Columbiana, Canfield, North Lima, Lowellville, Springfield Township and McDonald. The group met Tuesday evening and adopted a constitution similar to the Tri-County's and drew up its 1951 football schedules.

The schedules call for each team to play the other five in the circuit, except that Lowellville and North Lima were unable to get together on a date in 1951.

Columbiana's place in the Tri-County League will be taken by one of several schools applying to fill the vacancy. A Columbiana school spokesman said today the school is joining the new loop "because it is formed of schools more our size."

Supt. C. M. Johnson of Canfield, president of the new Inter-County League said, "I think we have a very well-balanced league."

Boardman High, formerly a Tri-County power, has also pulled out to compete in the Mahoning Valley League, comprised of all Class A schools.

All the schools in the Inter-County will be Class B. Canfield is the largest, but it will not reach Class A status for another four or five years.

Rumors Fly In Major Leagues

Branch Rickey Is One Big Question Mark

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—Where is Branch Rickey going? Is Connie Mack going to step down as manager of the Philadelphia A's? Will Rogers Hornsby be the new A's skipper?

These are a few of the hot questions that keep the baseball pot boiling during these post-World Series days.

Best information available at the moment is that Rickey will wind up in Pittsburgh with his old friend, John Galbreath. That's the way the wind is blowing inside the Dodger front office.

Rickey still is president and general manager of the Dodgers although he has contracted to sell his 25 per cent interest in the club.

Insiders believe that William Zeckendorf, who arranged to buy Rickey's stock, never will be able to go through with the deal. Instead it is expected that Walter O'Malley, with sound financial backing, will be able to exercise his option to buy the Rickey stock. That would leave the 75 per cent, including the holdings of O'Malley and the John Smith estate in one block.

NOTHING IS set on the Pittsburgh front where General Manager Roy Hamey is waiting definite word on the Rickey situation before he makes a move on strengthening the club. Hamey still has a year to go on his contract.

There also are reports that Rickey is bound for St. Louis to operate the Browns with the backing of the American League. President Will Harridge of the American League denied any such backing had been arranged.

In Philadelphia, the reign of 87-year-old Mr. Mack as manager seems to be near the end. The story circulated at the World Series was that Mack would devote himself to executive work next year, leaving the managing job to a younger man. Still Mr. Mack has said repeatedly he'd never resign.

It is known that three men were being considered for the job but that's about all. I'd say

DAILY DOZEN

By Bob Dixon

A high school ball club is flattered when it gets state-wide attention. Those Ohio team ratings are nice, if you are one of the ones selected.

But the thing is so inconsistent that aside from the top few teams, the list is a joke. It is in the bottom half of the list where the discrepancies are found.

Take for instance, Steubenville Big Red, last week given 17 votes, only five short of the "big 10." They lost a 35-12 tilt to top-rated Massillon, but managed to look good while losing.

This week the Big Red got only three votes, exactly as many as Salem collected. After watching them lose to Massillon, we'd like to bet on them if they were to play many of the squads found above them in the ratings.

Campbell Memorial this week ranks tenth. How? We wouldn't know. In a pre-season practice scrimmage against the Quakers, Memorial looked very ordinary and anytime they meet Salem, we'd pick Ben Barrett's team.

In all, three Youngstown schools are rated over Salem. Campbell, East and South all got more votes. Youngstown Woodrow Wilson was one notch behind.

job. One was Paul Richards, who signed Tuesday to manage the Chicago White Sox.

The others are Del Baker, San Diego manager, and Hornsby, who won a pennant with the Yankee farm club at Beaumont in the Texas League.

HORNSBY STILL is Beaumont manager. But if he has the chance to take the job with the A's he will have no difficulty getting loose from the Yankee chain.

Then there is the case of Lou Boudreau, the Cleveland manager. There is talk that the Athletics might make a deal with the Tribe for player-manager Boudreau. Lou still can play part time at short or third base.

But the matter of Boudreau's contract, a good-sized chunk of dough, might discourage the A's who had a miserable season at the gate. Cleveland has yet to announce Boudreau's status for 1951.

So that's the pitch for the rumor factory today. Something may pop before November 1. So many Dodger executives are waiting to see which way to jump that Rickey must announce his decision soon.

Middleground Hurt, Will Be Retired

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—Mistfortune that cut short the careers of other Kentucky Derby winners had caught up today with Middleground, class of 1950.

The lean-shanked son of Bold Venture is through with racing—his active days ended by an accident in a Belmont Park workout yesterday.

The chestnut three-year-old buckled under his rider, Bill Boland, and pulled up lame. X-rays disclosed two broken bones in his right forefoot and Trainer Max Hirsch announced sadly:

"We'll probably be able to save him but that's about all. I'd say

Boudreau's Stock Drops In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Oct. 12 (UP)—Lou Boudreau's future as manager of the Cleveland Indians was left very much up in the air today.

"Frankly, we don't know what we're going to do," said club president Ellis Ryan. "We think Boudreau is still a pretty good shortstop. But there has been absolutely no decision made. We are going to do what we think is best for the ball club."

The reference to Boudreau as a shortstop, instead of as a manager was taken in many circles as a bad omen for the Tribe field skipper.

Boudreau's current contract as manager expired at the end of the disappointing 1950 season, in which the club apparently had a good pennant chance and then fell far behind into fourth place. The two-year pact, calling for $65,000 a year, was signed after his 1949 season, which saw the Indians winning the pennant and

Boudreau named "manager of the year"

Eddie Ford Up For Physical Examination

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (UP)—Army doctors were giving star pitcher Eddie Ford of the New York Yankees the "twice-over" at Fort Jay Hospital today to see if he is physically fit to be drafted.

When the doctors looked at the 21-year-old southpaw a month ago at the induction center they found traces of a tropical infection he picked up in Mexico. At that time he was placed in an "undetermined status."

The temporary deferment enabled the blond star to finish the season with nine victories and one loss and then become the youngest pitcher ever to win a World Series game.

The doctors may finish their extensive tests today, or they may hold Ford at the hospital for several days for observation.

Dick Dunkel's COLLEGE FOOTBALL POWER INDEX

EXPLANATION—The Power Index provides a direct comparison of the relative strength of any two teams for this season to date. Thus, a 50.0 team has been 10 scoring points stronger than a 40.0 team on their comparative records, in which scoring margin has been weighed against strength of opposition. This does not necessarily mean that a 50.0 team should defeat a 40.0 team by exactly 10 points in the future. Teams rarely follow past performance that closely. The Dunkel system correlates records of all college teams and was started in 1929.

Debate Team Tryouts
Held At High School

First tryouts for the High School debate team were held this afternoon after school. Coach J. C. Guiler said yesterday he will have to select an entirely new team since all former members of the squad graduated last spring.

He planned to choose a group of approximately 15 students today and have them appear for final tryouts next week when they will each give short talks and present arguments in debate-team style.

The final debate team will be composed of two positive and two negative speakers. If talent is sufficient Mr. Guiler may select two sets of debaters. Members of all four classes are eligible.

Musician Received By Baptist Audience
Wilbur Fish of Columbus, well-known Joy Bell Ringer, was given an enthusiastic reception when he presented a sacred program of music Wednesday evening before a large audience in the Baptist church.

Mr. Fish has been asked for a return engagement Sunday, Nov. 19. He uses a variety of instruments and various lighting effects to illustrate his musical story telling which has taken him 900,000 miles to 3,200 churches of 37 denominations.

Obituary

Thomas Kopp

Friends have been advised of the death of Thomas Kopp, 79, of Marshalltown, Ia., formerly of Salem, which occurred recently at the Evangelical Deaconess hospital there, following a lingering illness.

A native of Salem, Mr. Kopp was born here Oct. 1, 1871, the son of David and Rachel Kopp. He married Jessie Wright of Salem Dec. 31, 1896 and they lived on Ohio ave for a number of years. In 1914 the Koppes moved to Marshalltown where he was associated with the Central Foundry Co. He retired 10 years ago.

Surviving are his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Ben Studer of Marshalltown. The funeral was held at Marshalltown.

John Hamacher

John Hamacher, 64, of Cleveland, former Salem resident, died at 10:58 a. m. Wednesday in Cleveland. Born Sept. 15, 1886 in Germany, he was the son of William and Gertrude Tinker Hamacher.

Mr. Hamacher came to Salem as a small child and lived here until 1911.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Sophia Stephen, Mrs. Gertrude Young and Mrs. Anna Bork, all of Pittsburgh, and two brothers, James of Chicago and Henry of South Carolina.

Funeral service was held this afternoon at the Stark Memorial, with burial in Grandview Cemetery.

Elmer Espy

Funeral services for Elmer Espy of 279 W. Fourth st, will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday, in the Shaffer-Baum funeral home in Parkersburg, W. Va.

Mr. Espy died Wednesday at the Campbell hospital in Parkersburg. He was a machinist at the Salem Tool Co.

Library Group To Give Honor Awards

COLUMBUS, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Ohioana Library Association today announced its list of honor awards to be presented at an annual luncheon here Saturday.

The Ohioana grand medals of 1950 will go to Dr. Norman Vincent Peale of New York City, a native of Bowersville, Greene county, and Dr. Harlan Hatcher, vice president of Ohio State University, a native of Ironton.

Dr. Peale, the citation reads, "has built Marble Collegiate church, New York City, into a nationally known institution, and his syndicated newspaper column has brought home to the man-on-the-street the dynamic power of religion and prayer."

Dr. Hatcher is being honored as "the Ohio historian of our day."

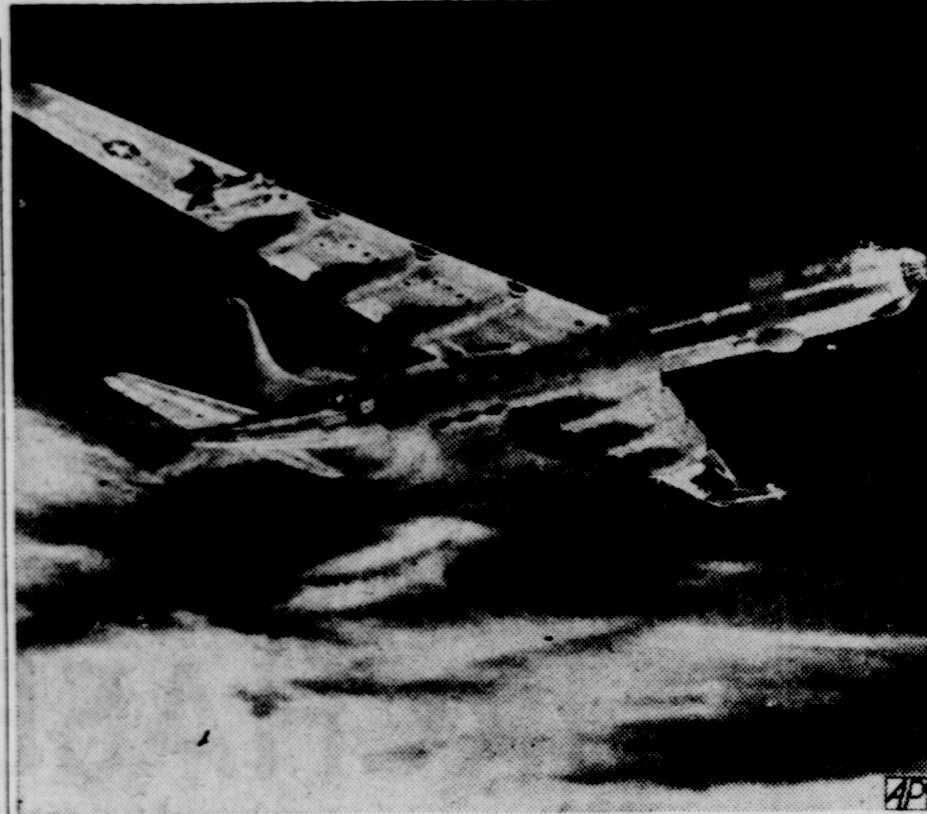

He has authored or edited seven books about Ohio.

Citations for meritorious service to the state also will be presented to two Ohio newspapermen. The awards will go to Arthur C. Johnson, editor-in-chief of the Columbus Dispatch, and Louis B. Seltzer, editor of the Cleveland Press.

Diana Barrymore To Be Wed Tuesday

NEWARK, N. J. Oct. 12—(AP)—Actress Diana Barrymore and actor Robert W. Wilcox applied for a marriage license here yesterday.

Their attorney said they would be married Tuesday by a Newark magistrate. Miss Barrymore gave her age as 29 and her address as New York. Wilcox, 39, of Rochester, N. Y., has worked with Miss Barrymore for four years as director or leading man.

Mrs. Ford's Will Fosters Education

DETROIT, Oct. 12—(AP)—Mrs. Henry Ford left nearly half of an estimated $8,500,000 estate to the family-founded Edison Institute for educational purposes.

Her will, filed for probate today, bequeathed the remainder to relatives and made certain cash bequests to five long-time servants of the Ford family.

Mrs. Ford died Sept. 29 at the age of 84. Her automobile magazine husband, founder of the Ford Motor Co., died three years ago.

Mrs. Ford willed $4,000,000 to the Edison Institute, founded in 1929 by the Fords and their son, the late Edsel Ford, "to do any or all things calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the cause of education."

Hormone Praised For Treatment Of Burns

CHICAGO, Oct. 12—(AP)—Use of acth, wonder hormone weapon against many major diseases, produced "remarkable" results in treatment of severe burns, two Phoenix, Ariz., doctors reported today.

They said "adequate and prolonged" acth treatment eliminated shock, prevented scar tissue, and stimulated new skin growth. It also kept fever down and there was no blistering.

They suggested it is important because of what they called the "soaring" number of severe burn cases in the Korean war and the "stupendous" burn problem a city would face if attacked by an atomic bomb.

If adopted on a large scale, use of acth for burns treatment would make it more hard to get than it is now, particularly in case of war or atomic attack which would result in many cases of severe burns.

At present the hormone, obtained from the pituitary glands of hogs, is scarce and expensive. If given a war use priority it would be even harder to get for those being treated for types of arthritis, rheumatic fever, colitis, asthma, and kidney and skin diseases.

Third Set Of Twins Brings Family To 16

HAMILTON, Oct. 12—(AP)—Mrs. Daniel Smith, 41, today gave birth to her third set of twins. Besides the three sets of twins

there are 10 other children in the family—a total of 16. The oldest is 24. The other twins are two girls, eight years old, and birth to her third set of twins. two boys, two years old.

Sweet Potato Pork Pie
One pound pork, cubed
1 T. fat
3 cups cubed (about 1-inch cubes) sweet potatoes
1½ cups fresh or canned peas
4 small onions, halved
2 T. flour
2 T. water
1 t. salt
¼ t. pepper
biscuit dough.

Cook the pork in the fat until lightly browned. Add water to cover. Put on a lid and simmer meat until almost tender (about 1 hour). Add the sweet potatoes, peas (if fresh), onions. Add water to cover vegetables. (If canned peas are used, don't add until last 5 minutes of cooking.) Cook for about 20 minutes or until the vegetables are tender.

Make a paste of the flour and the 2 tablespoons of water. Add a little hot liquid from the stew. Then add paste to stew, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper. Pour hot mixture into a greased baking dish. Top with biscuit rounds. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes or until biscuits are browned.

Cookies Always Make a Big Hit

FALL can be a mellow time—just right for relaxed, happy get-togethers with your favorite people. The season is ripe for evenings of bridge—or the current canasta craze—but no evening is perfect without a pleasant edible surprise.

Keep refreshments, as well as entertainment, in the relaxed mood appropriate to this pleasant time of year. You'll find that some simple, tasty cookies and a pot of hot coffee are all you need.

Shown here are two good cookie suggestions — crunchy coconut cereal squares and delicately crisp orange-flavored drop cookies. Both these cookies are easy to prepare, if your party is a last-minute affair.

COCONUT CRUNCH SQUARES

¼ cup sugar
½ t. salt
1 T. butter
5 cups candy-coated puffed wheat
1 cup shredded coconut, toasted.
Combine honey, sugar and salt. Cook until a small amount of syrup forms a firm ball in cold water (or to a temperature of 246 F.) Add butter. Add cereal, stirring lightly to coat. Add toasted coconut, combining quickly. Pack into square pan. When cold, cut into squares.

ORANGE DROPS

1 cup sifted flour
1 t. double-acting baking powder
½ t. salt
1/3 cup shortening
½ cup sugar
1 egg, well beaten
2 T. orange juice
1 t. grated orange rind

2½ cups candy-coated puffed wheat.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt and sift again. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and mix thoroughly. Add flour, alternately with orange juice, mixing well. Add orange rind and candy-coated puffed wheat and mix thoroughly.

Drop from teaspoon on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (375 F.) 10 minutes or until brown. Makes about 2½ dozen cookies.

CREAMY OLIVE MACARONI

1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
8 ounces macaroni
½ Cup thinly sliced onions
½ cup sliced ripe olives
8 ounces processed American cheese (sliced)
1½ cup milk
1 teaspoon dry mustard
few drops tabasco sauce

Add salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Place half the macaroni in greased casserole (2 quart). Place a layer of onions, olives, and cheese on macaroni. Add remaining macaroni and repeat layer of onions, olives and cheese.

If desired, arrange top layer of olives and cheese to form a decorative pattern on macaroni. Gradually blend milk into mustard and tabasco. Pour over macaroni in casserole. Bake covered in moderate (350 F.) oven 35 minutes. Uncover and continue baking to brown top for 10 to 15 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Gold Star Donation Aids Carol Ann Girard

Gold Star auxiliary contributed $25 to the Carol Ann Girard medicine fund when the members met Monday evening in the hall. Gifts also were made by individuals.

One application for membership was accepted and one application received. An invitation was received from the Salineville auxiliary to a benefit Oct. 23.

Mrs. William Beeson, Mrs. Clarence Means and Miss Josephine McGaffick make up the dance committee for the next two Friday evenings.

DANISH FRIKADELLAR

1 pound pork shoulder (ground twice)
¼ cup fine bread crumbs
½ teaspoon marjoram
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon grated onion
1 egg

2 tablespoons milk
2 tablespoons fortified margarine.
Gravy
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk or light cream
Place the ground pork in a mixing bowl. Add bread crumbs, marjoram, salt, pepper, grated onion, egg and milk. Beat this mixture vigorously with a spoon until it sticks together in one large ball.
Divide the meat into 8 or 12 portions and shape with your mixing spoon by rolling the meat against the side of the bowl. Your meat balls will then be walnut shaped. Melt margarine in a skillet and brown the Frikadellar on each side. Cover and cook over low heat for 30 minutes Turn the Frikadellar once while cooking. Make gravy by adding flour to the drippings. Stir until the flour and drippings are thoroughly blended. Add milk and continue to stir and cook over low heat until the gravy is gently bubbling. Let simmer slowly one minute.

Try Baked Fish In Pickle Sauce

NOW here's a fish dish almost anyone will like. Use steaks about 1/2-inch thick of halibut, cod or haddock and spread the special sauce over the fish before you bake it.

Baked Halibut with Fluffy Pickle Sauce

Two pounds halibut, cod or haddock steaks (1/2-inch thick)
1/2 t salt
1/2 cup sweet pickle relish
1/2 cup mayonnaise
2 T minced onion
2 T chopped parsley
2 drops tabasco sauce
1/4 t salt
2 egg whites
Cut fish into serving pieces, if desired; sprinkle with 1/2 teaspoon salt. Place in greased shallow baking dish. In a bowl combine relish, mayonnaise, onion, parsley and seasonings; stir thoroughly. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into pickle mixture. Spread sauce over top of fish. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Serve immediately.

Salmon Stuffed Peppers

Four medium peppers
1 small onion, chopped
1/3 cup finely chopped celery leaves
2 T butter or fortified margarine
1 1/2 T flour
3/4 cup tomato juice
1 1/4 cups canned salmon (about)
1 cup cooked rice
1/2 t salt

1/4 t lemon juice
dash Worcestershire sauce
1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs
Cut large peppers in half lengthwise or cut a slice from stem ends. Remove seeds. Boil in salted water until almost tender and drain.
Sauté onion and celery leaves in fat until tender. Blend in flour, add tomato juice and cook until thickened. Add salmon and rice. Season to taste. Pile salmon mixture in peppers and sprinkle with buttered crumbs.
Arrange stuffed peppers in a shallow baking dish, add water barely to cover the bottom of the dish and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 20 minutes, or until crumbs are brown.

APPETIZERS

Crisp, crunchy, cool raw vegetables are delicious appetizers. Carrot sticks, celery curls, cucumber fingers, cauliflower buds and, of course, radishes and green onions. And have you ever tried adding strips of sweet green pepper and flowerets of broccoli? These are all good with any of the usual cheese or salad dressing "dips"—or without the "dips" for the weight watchers.

Cranberry-Raisin Pie Will Catch Every Eye

PARTLY because of their pleasing and exciting color, but chiefly because both bright color and tart flavor are liked by Americans, fresh cranberries are greeted with whoops of delight each autumn.

Of course every homemaker serves cranberry sauce and many other favorite cranberry dishes. But how about letting this new cranberry-raisin pie join your group of favorite cranberry recipes?

In this pie, the stimulating tartness of cranberries is subtly blended with plump raisins.

CRANBERRY-RAISIN PIE

2½ T. quick-cooking tapioca
1 1/3 cups sugar
½ t. salt
2/3 cup seedless raisins
3 cups cranberries
1 1/4 cups water
1 t. grated orange rind
Pastry for two-crust 9-inch pie.
Combine quick-cooking tapioca, sugar, salt, raisins and cranberries in saucepan. Cover and bring to a boil. Cool, stirring occasionally. Add orange rind.

Line a 9-inch pie pan with ½ of the pastry rolled ¼-inch thick. Roll top crust ¼-inch thick, fold in half and cut several 2-inch slits near the fold. Fill pie shell with fruit mixture. Moisten edge of bottom crust with cold water. Adjust top crust on pie, opening slits with a knife to permit escape of steam. Trim off excess pastry, allowing it to extend ½ inch over rim. Fold excess under bottom crust and flute rim with fingers. Bake in hot oven (425 F.) 45 minutes, or until syrup boils with heavy bubbles that do not burst.

moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 1 hour, or until a knife inserted in the custard comes out clean.

Chill. Unmold and fill center with sherry-flavored whipped cream (whip 1 cup heavy cream and fold in 1 tablespoon sherry wine if desired). Sprinkle cream with cinnamon.

Recipes From Soup To Molded Dessert

HERE are two special recipes from this column's good friend, Jessica MacLachlin of San Francisco. Hope you enjoy them as much as our family did.

Savory Split Pea Soup

One cup split peas
4 strips bacon, diced
1 carrot, thinly sliced
1 large onion, thinly sliced
2 stalks celery, thinly sliced
6 peppercorns
bay leaf
1 qt. (4 cups) boiling water
¼ cup sauterne wine or ½ cup cream or undiluted evaporated milk salt
pepper and thyme to taste.

Wash and drain peas. Place peas in a saucepan; add bacon, carrot, onion, celery, peppercorns, bay leaf and boiling water. Cover and simmer gently for 45 minutes to 1 hour, or until peas are very soft, stirring occasionally.

Force soup through a sieve. Add wine, if used, cream, salt, pepper and thyme. Heat piping hot before serving to four.

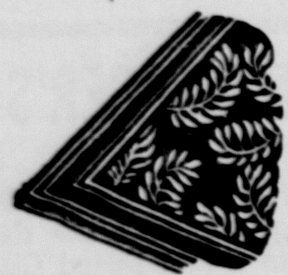

Note: If desired, 1 or 2 slices of bacon may be fried crisp, crumbled and used as a garnish for the soup.

Sherried Chocolate Custard Ring

3½ cups milk
2 (1-ounce) squares unsweetened chocolate
½ cup sugar
dash of salt
¼ t. cinnamon
½ cup sherry wine or if desired, sherry may be omitted and an additional ½ cup milk may be used

6 eggs, slightly beaten
Place the milk, chocolate, sugar, salt and cinnamon in a saucepan; stir over very low heat until the chocolate melts and milk reaches scalding point; beat with a rotary beater until well blended.

Remove from heat; stir in sherry or milk. Gradually add this mixture to the slightly beaten eggs. Pour into a greased 1½-quart ring mold, set in a shallow pan of hot water and bake in a

Customers' Corner

Did you ever wonder what treatment is given the letters you write to Customers' Corner?

Here's what happens to every letter received:

1. The letter is referred to the particular department or store involved for their study and reaction.
2. Once we get the necessary information your letter is answered.
3. If the subject is too complicated to be covered in a letter, a company representative visits you.
4. Your comments and suggestions are added to those of other customers to give us a better picture of what our customers want.

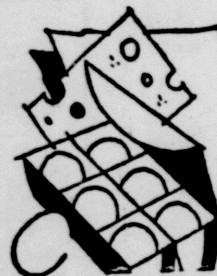

In other words, each letter is given the most careful consideration.

Won't you let us have your suggestions as to how we can make your A&P a better place to shop? Please write:

A&P's "Super-Right" Meats Are High In Value Low In Price

Here's Why:

Crop Estimates Given For Ohio

Frost-Nipped Corn Able To Be Utilized

THE AGRICULTURE department estimates Ohio's fall harvest will yield 52 bushels of corn per acre and a production of 174,928,000 bushels.

In a report released yesterday, the department also gave this indicated yield per acre and production of important Ohio crops:

All wheat 22.0 bushels per acre and production 46,068,000 bushels.

Oats 31 bushels per acre and production 40,824,000 bushels.

Soybeans for beans 22.5 bushels per acre and production 23,895,000 bushels.

Tobacco 1,142 pounds and production 23,190,000 pounds.

Apples (commercial production only) 3,477,000 bushels.

Potatoes 185 bushels per acre and production 7,215,000 bushels.

Sugar beets 12.0 tons per acre and production 312,000 tons.

IF YOU'RE WONDERING what to do with that corn nipped by heavy frosts in late September and early October, E. P. Reed, extension agronomist, says there are several ways of saving the crop.

He lists these five possibilities: Ensiling immature corn; feeding directly from the field; hogging off; cutting and shocking, and cribbing with added ventilation.

Hadacol Helps Arkansas' Oldest Timber Estimator

He Suffered Deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron

B. J. Chandler, 518 Lacer Blvd., in Hot Springs National Park, Ark., will be 85 years old in October and is believed to be the oldest timber estimator in Arkansas. He feels better now than he has in a long time since HADACOL has helped him relieve deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mr. Chandler's statement: "I have suffered with aches and pains in the shoulders, hips and knees. It was almost impossible to sleep and I had lost my appetite. HADACOL has done more good than anything else. I have now taken about 35 bottles of HADACOL. The pains have been greatly reduced."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not just bring symptomatic relief—HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of aches and pains in the shoulders, legs and arms, certain nervous disorders, and a general run-down weakened condition due to such deficiencies in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in LIQUID Form

There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement if often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A 'Doubting Thomas'

After reading Mr. Chandler's wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mr. Chandler, it can do for you if you're suffering annoying aches and pains and a general run-down, weakened condition due to such deficiencies.

So, what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you should start taking immediately!

Sold On A Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin of red blood cells (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body of course—to every part of the body. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel so wonderful!

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drug store if your system lacks B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50.

About each of these methods, Mr. Reed makes the following suggestions:

Ensiling immature corn is one of the best methods of salvaging the crop. When corn is in the "roasting ear" stage, about half the total feeding value is in the stalks and leaves. On a dry matter basis, the silage is just as good pound for pound as that from mature corn.

With a large acreage of immature corn, he believes it may be best to use only the jerked ears for silage. If this is done, the ears should be cut into one-fourth to one-half inch pieces and the silage packed by tramping. Some additional water may be required at filling time to bring the moisture content to the safe minimum of 60 percent.

Farmers who cannot make silage, can feed the immature ears directly to livestock. Because of the higher moisture content, one-fourth to one-half more must be fed to equal the feeding value of sound crib corn. Care must be taken to avoid abrupt changes from dry grain to sappy corn.

Hogging off is safe and satisfactory if the hogs are accustomed to the immature corn by hand feeding for 10 to 14 days before turning them into the field. Cutting and shocking in small, well-made shocks of from 70 to 100 hills will permit slow, but usually certain curing of the grain. Properly handled, the fodder is about equal in feeding value to timothy hay.

Extra ventilation will be needed to crib satisfactorily high moisture corn, and county agricultural agents can advise on various types of homemade ventilating devices and techniques. Adding one pound of salt to each 100 pounds of corn cribbed aids in preventing molding.

OCT. 24 IS the date chosen by the Mahoning County Home Demonstration Council for their annual "Christmas Ideas Workshop" meeting which will be held at Dublin grange hall.

Some of the purposes of this meeting are: To encourage family participation in the Christmas preparation, to assist in reducing the cost of Christmas, to develop standards for gifts, particularly the home made ones, and to develop originality and resourcefulness. There will be exhibits, demonstrations and a chance to make a few gifts at the meeting.

An informal type meeting, it will begin at 10 a. m. and close at 3:30. Persons planning to spend the day at the meeting are asked to bring their own lunch. A nurse

Bucks Worry Over

Hoosier Passing

COLUMBUS, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Ohio State Buckeyes dug in for their last pass defense drill on home territory today prior to leaving for Bloomington and Saturday's game with the Indiana Hoosiers.

The Bucks will leave early tomorrow morning.

How to bottle up the Indiana passing attack which has provided 365 yards in the way of offense in the Hoosiers' first two contests took up considerable time at State's practice session yesterday.

Bob Demmel, Fremont senior, moved temporarily into the left halfback defensive position on the varsity squad. He may start there in the Indiana tilt unless the bruised hip of Ray Hamilton mends.

Coach Wesley Fesler said ends Ralph Armstrong of Cleveland and Dick Anderson of Portsmouth may see some action against Indiana. Both have been on the injured list.

Armstrong put on shoulder pads for the first time in several weeks yesterday.
